ness to-day. I believe I must trouble you with my bill for attendance during your wife's illness."

"Ah, yes; I recollect. Have you it with you? Fifty dollars! Impossible! Why she was not ill above three weeks."

"Very true; but think of the urgency of the case. Three or four calls during 24 hours were necessary, and two whole nights I passed at her bedside."

"And yet the charge appears to me enormous. Call it forty, and I will hand you the amount at once."

The doctor hesitates. "I cannot afford to lose ten dollars, which is justly my due, Mr. Wilton."

"Suit yourself, doctor. Take forty and receipt the bill, or stick to your first charge, and wait till I am ready to pay it. Fifty dollars is no trifle, I can tell you."

And this is the man whose life might have been a blank but for the doctor's skill.

Again we are travelling onward.—The unpaid bill is left in Mr. Wilton's hand, and yet the doctor half regrets that he had not submitted to the imposition. Money is greatly needed just now, and there seems little prospect of getting any.

Again and again the horse is stopped at some well-known post. A poor welcome has the doctor to day. Some bills are collected, but their amount is discouragingly small. Everybody appears to feel astonishingly healthy, and have almost forgotten that they ever had occasion for a physician. There is one consolation, however, sickness will come again, and then, perhaps, the unpaid bill may be recollected. Home-ward goes the doctor. He is naturally of a cheerful disposition; but now he is seriously threatened with a fit of the blues. A list of calls upon his slate has little effect to raise his spirits.—"All work and no pay," he mutters to himself, as he puts on his dressing gown and slippers; and throwing himself upon the lounge, turns a deaf ear to the little ones, while he indulges in a reverie as to the best mode of paying the doctor.

There was once an Englishman, ye old Chesterfield, who was a polite man and a mirror of a gentleman that reflected all the graces of Beau Brummell and the elegant Crichton, combining them with many dignities of his own, and it came to pass that he had a son, who was much less polite than his father, and the ancient Chesterfield indited sundry epistles to the juvenile Chesterfield, advisory as to his conduct and actions,—both of these celebrities are "looking up at the roots of the daisies" in old England, but the memory of the younger is exaggerated and perpetuated in the anarchy and vulgarity of young America, and her promising sons Anomalous, as it appears a boy is a man at fifteen, when he moulds and changes his roundabout plumage for a swallow-tail coat, his respectable brogans for patent leather Imperials, his clean white collar for an illuminated pictorial, neatly done in alternate streaks of red and blue, and the jaunty cup of youth is doffed for the stove pipe ensign of Yankee manhood, the mouse down upon the upper lip is discovered and cultivated by a Christopher Columbus of a barber, young America jr. produces nausea and uncomfortable feelings persistently by trying to learn to smoke, and binds his tender eyes with figurative red tape in drinking hot punches late at night with "clever fellows." A BANK PRESIDENT SHOT DEAD BY THE HUSBAND OF HIS FORMER MISTRESS.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4, 1857.

Richard Carter, President of the Anthracite Bank of Tamaqua, was shot dead this evening, in the parlor of the St. Lawrence Hotel, by Thomas Washington Smith, of Cecil county, Maryland. Smith fired first four balls from his revolver and two more after Carter had fallen on the floor. Carter, a middle aged man, wealthy and has a family. Smith is aged thirty years, and was laboring under great excitement. Carter had accused Smith of the seduction of a ward or adopted daughter of his. Smith states that he met the girl at a boarding school and married her. He subsequently discovered that she had been the mistress of Carter. She had a child four months only after marriage. The shooting was in revenge. Smith was arrested and taken to the Mayor's office.

At the hearing this evening Smith claimed to be the travelling agent of a mercantile agency.

Traders who are advertising to sell cheap, often announce one fixed price; but one in Hartford, who says that he wants money, and must have it, adds, "we give the lowest prices the first time, and if that don't sell, then we throw off a little."—Provo Journal.

LOCAL NEWS.

We visited the Studio of George D. Brewerton Esq., a few days since, and were gratified to observe many specimens of his ability and taste as an artist, he has painted some little gems of landscape in water-colors, and several tiny oval pictures of quiet lakes at sunset, and rivers in the far West, that are breaking in blue and silver ripples on the flowery banks of the rolling prairies. Mr. Brewerton has executed a number of fine Crayon drawings and a visit to his room will ensure an agreeable hour. His Studio is in the second story of Narragansett Block, entrance on Church street.

We published the other day an article from "Charity" calling attention to the Newport Musical Institute, and suggesting that it should be requested to give a Concert for the benefit of the poor and needy of our community, and to-day we are pleased to announce that on Friday evening, at a regular meeting of the members of the Institute, it was voted to give Two Concerts for charitable purposes. Thus always, on hand, the Institute has nobly responded to the call of the press, and in this as in many other particulars, have shown their promptness and liberality in matters which interest our citizens.

Thursday night was rough and ugly weather in the sound, but the good steamer Bay State made her usual trip in fine style, and arrived here at about three o'clock in the morning; there was an unusual number of passengers, and some twenty-five or thirty landed here. The steamer Governor has discontinued her trips for repairs, and during the winter, the Ice King permitting us, we shall depend upon the Bay State Line for our journeys to New York, and the morning newspapers and letters.

God grant all our readers a happy winter with a little spice of excitement and fun, no scandal or "Salamander stove, back-room cliques."

We observe amongst the arrivals at the Aquidneck House, the name of the venerable James Savage Esq., President of the Massachusetts State Antiquarian and Genealogical Society. Judge Hayton of the Supreme Court is also in the city.

We perceive by the New York papers that Gov. Stevens and family of Oregon, were among the passengers of the steamer "Star of the West" for that port. It will be remembered that the Gov., is now a delegate from Washington territory to Congress. They are now in this city.

We think a course of lectures "to the young," delivered on consecutive Sunday Evenings, would be well attended, and productive of much good if they could be properly arranged.

Mr. Tourjee's singing school begins to-night at the Music Hall. Don't forget it.

Court of Justices.
FRIDAY, NOV. 6th, 1857.

THE CIVIL ACTION.
Alfred H. Stevens, vs. Beriah Wait et al was dismissed. Van Zandt for Defendants. Briggs vs. Sherman was also dismissed. Van Zandt for Defendant.

The Court then adjourned to Tuesday next.

The Criminal Docket has been unusually small for several weeks, and we welcome a better state of morals and manners in the city, but how long it will continue, deponent sayeth not.

A MURDER AT HONEOYE FALLS.—On Friday last Mr. Benjamin Starr of Honeoye Falls was murdered while attempting to arrest a young man named Manly Locke, on a charge of assault and battery. He attempted to arrest him in a saloon kept by a man named Simeon, but Locke resisted and struck the officer a blow in the face with his fist, breaking his nose. The Rochester American says:

"The murderer had on brass knuckles. The prisoner then rushed out of doors with the officer after him. Starr again caught him and tried to make him go along quietly, and also asked him if he had a knife. The prisoner immediately drew a shoe knife, the blade being about five inches long, and stabbed Starr in the arm with it, and instantly followed it up with a back-handed blow, striking the officer in the breast, the knife penetrating the heart. Starr exclaimed: 'I am a dead man!' and instantly expired. The prisoner then attempted to run away, but was caught by a Mr. Amsten, who delivered him into the custody of Deputy Sheriff Yorkes, who arrived here with the murderer late last night and lodged him safely in jail.

"The murdered man has long been a constable in Honeoye, and was well known and highly respected. He was about 45 years of age, and leaves a wife and four children—two sons and two daughters. The horrible death of their father has stricken them with grief. Believed by them, his loss will be irreparable. Mrs. Starr is nearly frantic. The murderer is a young man aged 21 years. He has a father, mother, brother and sister living in Honeoye. He was brought up in Honeoye, and is peaceable when not under the influence of liquor. He drank considerably, and has had frequent quarrels when intoxicated. He was in the habit of carrying a knife. His parents are highly respectable people and their son's crime has overwhelmed them with sorrow. We saw the prisoner this morning at the Jail, and had some conversation with him. He does not seem to realize that he has committed an awful crime. He acknowledges having committed the deed, but says he was drunk at the time. Intense excitement exists in the village of Honeoye and all that part of the country. Starr has a brother in Genesee. Coroner Quinn has been summoned and went to Honeoye this morning."—*N. Y. GENERAL NEWS.

Correspondence of the Daily News.
NEW YORK, Nov. 6, 1857.

Mr. Editor,—In spite of the telegraphic facilities, the returns of our State Election have, somehow, contrived to straggle in rather lazily this time; but it begins to be at last apparent that an enormous falling off in the popular vote—almost wholly on the Republican side—has given the State partially if not entirely into the hands of the Buchanan administration party. They have doubtless carried the State ticket by eight or ten thousand majority. The Senate may still be ours, but the assembly (last year Republican by 50 majority) is now largely against us.

The city is about as "Democratic"—to adopt the customary gross perversion of language—as it was last fall, but with a reduction of some 16,000 in the popular vote. Of this loss, the "Americans" sustain some 12,000, and the Dim-eye-erats 2,000—the Republicans just about holding their own from last year. The projected fusion of the two latter forces was but partially effected, and the Buchanan patriots swept every thing in town high and dry. That they will do a similar thing, at the Charter election in December, there can be, I presume, no great room for doubt.

One thing, in connexion with last Tuesday's contest in the city, deserves especial notice. I don't if, within the last quarter of a century, our citizens have experienced so quiet and orderly an election. This result, beyond all controversy, is to be credited to the act of the last Legislature utterly forbidding the sale of intoxicating liquors on the day of Election, and requiring the various ticket stands to be stationed at a respectful distance from the polls. Out of the whole number of 175 election districts, within the city limits, I believe there was nothing like disorderly conduct in half a dozen. In most cases, quiet citizens had full opportunity to vote, without either difficulty or danger. This is a great and excellent advance in the right direction—and I hope it may be sustained in future.

The financial disorders are evidently but slowly mending. Specie is pouring into the city by millions—the Liverpool and California steamers this week bringing jointly seven or eight horse loads of gold, (counting half a ton avoirdupois to each horse.) The stock market, however, is still unsettled, and provisions in general show a decline; but there is more money, more cheerfulness and activity in nearly all departments of business, and a much better prospect than there was a month ago. Still, the statement of the Daily Goosehawk, that "money is rapidly accumulating, and capitalists are becoming exceedingly puzzled to know what to do with it," is a little too flat to catch any body but fools with.

Mr. Simeon Draper, Police Commissioner elect, has at last "smoked" himself out of his doubt, and decided not to accept the situation. Simeon seems to think he can do better, either for the public or himself, selling stocks and real estate at auction. So the Police Board remains, as it has been for two or three months past—at a dead-lock.

The city Board of Education has made its annual estimate of the cash required for its department during the ensuing year, the aggregate being a fraction over One Million one Hundred and twenty-six thousand dollars. This is indeed a formidable amount to be raised by taxation, but it is small in comparison with the total sum annually spent here by the consumers of intoxicating liquors, which in turn produce a fearful aggregate of taxation, pauperism and crime.

The gross Custom-house receipts here during the last month (October) were $892, 110—same month last year $3,449, 737—showing a decrease of nearly three-quarters, as compared with last year. A mighty check upon importations for three months past.

I see, by your paper, that you have copied Bennett's compliments for the lawyers. The gentlemen of the bar must feel highly flattered by such an elegant notice from such a distinguished source! They ought to send him half a ream of foolscap, with this inscription:—"From the Sons of Law, to the Father of Lies."

RAMBLER.

A STEAMBOAT NEWS-PAPEE.—Among other innovations which the mammoth steamer Great Eastern, is about to inaugurate will be the publication of a daily paper on board for the benefit of the travelling public—the regular "public" of travellers—women she may be bearing across the ocean. But this startling feature is anticipated on the western waters of the New World, for the New Orleans and St. Louis packet steamer James E. Woodruff now sails equipped with the force and material for the publication of a regular daily paper on board during her trip up and down the river, with a job office attached for the printing of bills of fare and other work.

MR. SIMEON DRAPER has written a letter to the Police Commissioners, declining the honor of a seat in the Board of Police, to which he was unanimously elected not long since. We are not aware of Mr. Draper's reasons for taking this course, but they will appear when the letter is published. We understand it will be sent to the Board on Saturday.

[It] Warranted to cure Baldness, Scurf, Dandruff, itching and all diseases of the skin. This Balm gives the scalp a new and healthy action; restores the coloring matter to the roots of the Hair, which passes through the Hair Dye, giving a natural color without the use of Hair Dye.
It keeps the hair from falling off.

Mr. Mason, Sir:—I have found a Hair Restorative in your Alpine Balm, which has not merely changed the gray locks for their original, but has given them a glossy lue, which before they never had.

JEREMIAH S. ROSS,
123 Wickenden street.
Providence, May 20, 1857.

C. A. P. Mason, Dear Sir:—I am now using the Alpine Hair Balm, which I had of you, with most happy results. On the 30th of June last, my hair (which had been gray for more than six years) was fast falling off; but on the third application of the Balm it ceased falling, and is now firmly rooted, and very nearly its original color. By the use of one bottle, I confidently expect a complete, permanent, luxuriant and original head of hair. If every gray haired skeptic would try it, they would soon become "gray epistles, known and read of all men," as having used the Alpine Hair Balm. Yours, &c.

JOHN F. TRESCOTT,

TESTIMONY OF A LADY OVER 50 YEARS OF AGE.
Mr. Mason, Sir—I write to inform you how pleased I am with your Alpine Hair Balm. My hair has been gray for a number of years, and I have been obliged to wear a front piece and cap; but have always found a difficulty when having a bonnet on to keep the front piece from working back and showing the white hair. Finally I concluded I would try your Alpine Hair Balm; I used one bottle only and my hair has come back to its natural color, which was brown. My hair is now perfectly free from dandruff and is soft and glossy.

Very respectfully, SARAH LYON.

READ! READ! READ!—"Ye affected read" the following Certificate of over 20 years' standing:
H. T. HERRING, Dear Sir—I have been troubled with an affection of the Bladder and Kidneys for over twenty years. I have tried physicians in vain, and at last concluded to give your genuine preparation a trial, as I have heard it highly spoken of. It afforded me immediate relief. I have used three bottles, and I have obtained more relief from its effects than I have better than I have for twenty years. I have the greatest faith in its virtues and curative powers, and shall do all in my power to make it known to the afflicted. Hoping this may prove advantageous to you in assisting you to introduce the medicine to many truly yours,

HEALTHY BREAD.
JAMES PYLE'S
DIETETIC SALERATUS
Is among the most important improvements of the present day. Every family throughout this land should be acquainted with its intrinsic value, and thereby escape the many evils arising from the use of common Saleratus—the caustic impurities of which are acknowledged destructive to health, by physicians generally. Common saleratus has the elements of caustic alkali, and readily acts on the coating of the stomach, thus deranging the digestive organs and paying the way of Dyspepsia and diseases of every kind. Children are the greatest sufferers and frequently die from infantile diseases, which in former years were successfully treated, or without medical aid. But here is an article to be relied on.

James Pyle's Dietetic Saleratus, the result of many experiments, is entirely different from everything heretofore in use.—The perfection reached in purifying it, makes it as harmless to the stomach as flour itself, while in point of nicety it surpasses the best baking soda, and will make bread, biscuit and cake, beautifully light, nutritious, and suitable for the most delicate stomach. Every body that tries it will use no other.

Beware of Counterfeits.—Our great success has brought out a multitude of poisonous imitations. The genuine is packed in whole, half, and quarter packages, with the name of James Pyle on each. Manufacturing Depot, 313 Washington st., New York.

For sale at all the groceries in Newport, Providence and throughout the State. a31
